

Emily Cullinan

b.1952, Mimili SA

Biography

Emily Cullinan, b.1952 in Mimili in South Australia paints her Country that she travelled with her family as a child and has worked for many years teaching it's important stories in Uluru NT. "When I was little we used to do a lot of walking; we'd camp along the way to different Countries. My dad would use a tjuki (digging stick) every day to help us find water. I know this Country, like the way the old people that passed away before us knew it."
